

BBH Limited Duration Fund

Monthly Fund Update / February 2021

The BBH Limited Duration Fund Class I ("the Fund") returned 0.23% in February, and the Bloomberg Barclays U.S. 1-3 Year Treasury Bond Index returned -0.06%. Outperformance was due to the Fund's small positive performance in credit and its duration hedging, vs. an all-Treasury benchmark.

The 1-3 year part of the U.S. Treasury curve was unchanged in February, even as maturities 3 years and longer saw significant rate increases. Returns in excess of Treasuries (excess returns) for 3-5 year Investment Grade (IG) and 3-5 year High Yield (HY) corporate bonds were 0.16% (IG) and 1.13% (HY) vs. total returns of -0.48% and 0.85%, respectively. Total return for floating rate loans was 0.67%. Asset-backed securities and non-agency commercial mortgage-backed securities returned -0.14% and -1.05%, respectively.

Fiscal stimulus, vaccinations, and the end of lockdowns will support credit fundamentals in the coming months. Indeed, earnings and economic indicators have produced multiple surprises to the upside. Strong economic performance combined with highly stimulative monetary and fiscal policy have caused a Treasury sell-off, turning returns negative in intermediate and long maturities. Selling pressure in longer bonds caused credit spreads to retreat from their record low levels in mid-February. As attention focused on rising rates, the floating rate loan sector had strong inflows and outperformed its peers.

Credit spreads remain near cycle tight, and our valuation model indicates a significantly overheated credit market. We do not welcome a sell-off in credit spreads, but such an event may offer buying opportunities. In any case, we will remain guided by our philosophy of investing in durable credits¹ only at attractive spreads.

Credit Quality letter ratings are provided by Standard and Poor's, Moody's and Fitch and are presented as the higher of the three ratings. When a security is not rated by Standard & Poor's, Moody's or Fitch, the highest credit ratings from DBRS and Kroll may be used. Credit ratings reflect the credit quality of the underlying issues in the portfolio and not of the portfolio itself. Issues with credit ratings of BBB or better are considered to be investment grade, with adequate capacity to meet financial commitments. Issues with credit ratings below BBB are considered speculative in nature and are vulnerable to the possibility of issuer failure or business interruption.

Effective duration is a measure of the portfolio's return sensitivity to changes in interest rates.

Weighted Average Life of securities excludes US Treasury futures positions.

Yield to Maturity is the rate of return the portfolio would achieve if all purchased bonds and derivatives were held to maturity, assuming all coupon and principal payments are received as scheduled and reinvested at the same yield to maturity. This figure is subject to change and is not meant to represent the yield earned by any particular security. Yield to Maturity is before fees and expenses.

RISKS

Bond prices are sensitive to changes in interest rates and a rise in interest rates can cause a decline in their prices.

Asset-Backed Securities ("ABS") are subject to risks due to defaults by the borrowers; failure of the issuer or servicer to perform; the variability in cash flows due to amortization or acceleration features; changes in interest rates which may influence the prepayments of the underlying securities; misrepresentation of asset quality, value or inadequate controls over disbursements and receipts; and the security being structured in ways that give certain investors less credit risk protection than others.

Foreign investing involves special risks including currency risk, increased volatility, political risks, and differences in auditing and other financial standards.

The Fund also invests in derivative instruments, investments whose values depend on the performance of the underlying security, assets, interest rate, index or currency and entail potentially higher volatility and risk of loss compared to traditional stock or bond investments.

Neither Morningstar nor its content providers are responsible for any damages or losses arising from any use of this information. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. The Morningstar Rating™ for funds, or "star rating", is calculated for managed products (including mutual funds, variable annuity and variable life subaccounts, exchange-traded funds, closed-end funds, and separate accounts) with at least a three-year history. Exchange-traded funds and open-ended mutual funds are considered a single population for comparative purposes. It is calculated based on a Morningstar Risk-Adjusted Return measure that accounts for variation in a managed product's monthly excess performance, placing more emphasis on downward variations and rewarding consistent performance. The top 10% of products in each product category receive 5 stars, the next 22.5% receive 4 stars, the next 35% receive 3 stars, the next 22.5% receive 2 stars, and the bottom 10% receive 1 star. The Overall Morningstar Rating for a managed product is derived from a weighted average of the performance figures associated with its three-, five-, and 10-year (if applicable) Morningstar Rating metrics. The weights are: 100% three-year rating for 36-59 months of total returns, 60% five-year rating/40% three-year rating for 60-119 months of total returns, and 50% 10-year rating/30% five-year rating/20% three-year rating for 120 or more months of total returns. While the 10-year overall star rating formula seems to give the most weight to the 10-year period, the most recent three-year period actually has the greatest impact because it is included in all three rating periods. The BBH Limited Duration Fund was rated against the following numbers of U.S.-domiciled Ultrashort Bond category funds over the following time periods: 190 funds in the last three years, 152 funds in the last five years, and 73 funds in the last ten years. With respect to these Ultrashort Bond category funds, the overall BBH Limited Duration Fund (Class I & Class N), received a Morningstar Rating of 5 stars and 5 stars, respectively. Class I three-, five- and ten-year periods received ratings of 5 stars, 5 stars and 5 stars, respectively. Class N three-, five- and ten-year periods received ratings of 5 stars, 5 stars and 5 stars, respectively.
